

SIKH CURRICULUM

Kartar Singh Bring
Sikh Studies Co-ordinator

Five Key Areas of Learning and Seva Project

Gurbani and Kirtan

Learning about the Gurus

Sikh Living

Important
personalities, warriors and martyrs

Key historical events and places

Seva Project

Learning Outcomes

Gurbani and Kirtan

- Relating prayer, meditation and reflection to everyday life
- Gaining a broad knowledge base of the Sikh scriptures.
- Understanding the meaning of Gurbani- Sikh scripture

Learning about the Gurus

- Understanding why the Gurus are important to Sikhs.
- Understand the key messages and values we can take from their living examples.
- Identifying their key contributions
- Reflecting on how these contributions impact on our lives today.

Sikh Living

- Relating Sikh Values to the qualities we should consider in our lives
- Understanding our responsibilities to shape our life and character
- Understanding the responsibility we have in society
- Observing how others have demonstrated these values and envisioning the future

Learning Outcomes

Important personalities, warriors and martyrs

- Building a historical knowledge base
- Understanding the significance of the contributions made by these individuals.
- Reflecting on the relevance to our lives and being inspired by their examples.

Key historical events and places

- Building a historical knowledge base
- Understanding the significance of these events and why they happened.
- Understanding the impact on the Sikh community.

Seva Project

- Opportunity to put our values into action
- Discussing different ways in which we can do Seva
- Participating in social action recognising the impact we can make in building a better world.

How can I support you?

Work with you on lesson plans and check any areas of uncertainty

Advice on key messages or points of learning

Checking to ensure accuracy of content such as presentations or worksheets

Sounding board for creative ideas of delivering the framework

Guidance on refining religious knowledge and expression.

Identifying Sikh visitors or activities.

Bandi Chorr Divas
4th November 2021

Guru Nanak Sahib's Gurpurb
19th November 2021

Vaisakhi
April 2022

Major Sikh Festival Celebrations

- Joint Assembly
- Whole School Celebration
- Activities and Learning
- Engaging with the wider Falcons Parents and Community
- Many more Sikh festivals throughout the year.